Independence Caucus Endorses Nick Popaditch, for Congress in the 51st District of California

California (December 27, 2009) – The Independence Caucus is proud to announce their support for Congressional Candidate Nick Popaditch in the 51st District.

The Independence Caucus carefully chooses candidates based on an extensive vetting process, and after running the gambit, Nick Popaditch, can now count himself as one of Independence Caucus' family.

I love my country. I spent the majority of my adult life in her service in the United States Marine Corps until I was wounded in action and medically retired. I've seen the greatness of freedom experienced for the first time by people who've never known it, and gained a greater appreciation for our own liberties. My freedom was bought and paid for by our Founding Fathers and again by my father's generation. The chain of custody has been handed down to me and my generation to secure our liberties for our children and for theirs. Nick will not tell you, but he is a true American Hero.

He stands for Limited Government I pledge a vote of "No" on any bill that contains earmarks or unrelated "riders," regardless of the party who attaches them. I will work to scrub these from our legislation and bring clean bills up for honest votes, or I will not support them. Strong National Defense, Secure Borders I will reject any legislation regarding "immigration reform" that does not also guarantee the completion of the border fence, and I will propose legislation to cut ALL Federal funding to any city that is operating as a so-called "sanctuary city." Finally, as one of my first priorities, I will work to increase funding to put more border patrol agents where they are most needed: on our borders protecting our national security.

"We here at the Independence Caucus are proud to announce our endorsement of this great and Principled Candidate for Congress in the 51st District of California, Nick Popaditch.

About Independence Caucus

The Independence Caucus was started by volunteers who came together while working to elect Jason Chaffetz to Congress in 2008., Fed up with unsustainable spending in Washington, and total disregard for Constitutional limits on government authority, Independence Caucus founders realized that incumbents from both parties have been compromised by the "Big Money" special interest groups who fund their perpetual re-election campaigns, and have embarked on a mission to sniff out and expose the incumbents political money trails, and train others across the country exactly how to boot compromised politicians out of office and replace them with ones who will actually represent and listen to their constituents.

The organization has hundreds of researchers and volunteers across the country working to put America back on track.
